The Global Jewish Community Is In Crisis

This war in Israel has magnified the challenges faced by families with serious illnesses and those coping with trauma.

Thanks to you, Chai Lifeline is offering critical support to children, families, and communities across the world during this difficult time.

Safe Relocation

In Israel, Chai Lifeline families have been relocated to hotels and apartments out of high-risk areas.

Trauma Resources

Vital materials offering psychological guidance for parents and educators to support their children and students have been distributed in Hebrew, English, and Yiddish, reaching hundreds of thousands far and wide.

Volunteer Assistance

Our volunteers are providing respite relief for overwhelmed Chai Lifeline families with hospitalized children, parents serving in the IDF, and hospital staff.

Uninterrupted Medical Care

Amidst the chaos of war, we're ensuring our children's medical appointments and transportation needs are met seamlessly.

Support Packages

Families across Israel, whose medical journeys are intensified by the war, have received care packages, meals, financial aid, and toys.

From Israel to Antwerp and Los Angeles to London, our professional team has been leading crisis interventions, trauma workshops, and consultations for thousands in Jewish communities worldwide.

Your unwavering support empowers us to make a difference.
